

The Flexible Packaging Association (FPA) is hiring for the following positions:

Counsel Position

The Flexible Packaging Association is looking for a Counsel, Government Affairs. This position will work on both regulation and legislation impacting converters of flexible packaging and suppliers to the industry. This includes, among others, FDA and EPA guidance and regulation as well as state and federal regulation and legislation having to do with product make-up, recycling infrastructure, end-markets, and sustainability. This position will report directly to the President & CEO and coordinate activities with the Vice President, Technology and Environment. A law degree is required and 0 to 5 years of environmental policy experience. The position is in Annapolis, Maryland and will require significant travel. Please send resume, salary requirements, and preference for a virtual or in-person interview to resumes@flexpack.org.

Administrative Position

The Flexible Packaging Association is looking for an Administrative Position. The position will report directly to the President & CEO but will work with a 6 person staff on various office operations, as well as surveys and reports, publications, presentations, FPA's packaging awards, and committee and general membership meetings, trade shows and other duties as assigned. The position is in Annapolis, Maryland and travel will be required 4 to 5 times a year for meetings and trade shows, including packing, shipping, and set-up/take-down. Proficiency in the Microsoft Office suite required; knowledge of the Adobe office suite and Quick Books is preferred. Please send resume, salary requirements, and preference for a virtual or in-person interview to resumes@flexpack.org.